

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

Please, no! It's bad enough that I'm barraged with blaring TVs everywhere in the airport and subjected to "I'm here where are you" cell phone conversations on buses and trains. At least on other forms of public transportation I can try to move away from cell phone conversations; I can't do that on an airplane.

You should note that commuter trains between D.C. and Baltimore (and other places, I'm sure), have added "quiet cars" where cell phone conversations aren't allowed, and they are very popular. On some runs, they have to add more quiet cars.

Please, please, don't trap me on an airplane listening to other people's phone conversations.

Please leave the current rules in effect.

Sincerely,

Kris Raab
